With over 90 registered organizations listed in this Guide, there are numerous opportunities for involvement outside the classroom. The organizations represent interests that range from student legislation to social activism, literary publications to Greek Life. Organizations are classified in eight different categories: Departmental, Governing Bodies, Greek/Social, Religious, Sports/Athletic Clubs, Scholastic/Honorary, Special Interest, and Student Media. The index on the front lists the organizations in alphabetical order and lists their number in the guide. The organizations are then grouped by category in alphabetical order. You can also access the Student Activities website, which lists all student organizations by category, with many of their own website links, at: www.southwestern.edu/studentactivities

Email addresses are provided with permission of the organization contact. The person listed is willing to receive questions via this medium about all aspects of the organization including, but not limited to, membership requirements, meeting times, and upcoming events.
