Supplemental Financial Information

Please describe any changes in financial standing since your last FAFSA filing, or any other circumstances that should be taken into account (e.g., recent loss of income), additional family expenses (e.g., family illness or death), or special circumstances (e.g., non-contributing parent or stepparent, loss of aid or scholarship while studying abroad). Please also attach a copy of your most recent Financial Aid Award Letter.

Essay

Write an essay of no fewer than 700 words answering the following questions (please note that the quality of your essay will influence the amount awarded):

1. How does this study abroad program fit your personal and professional goals? Please specifically address how your study abroad program fits: a. Intended/declared major(s); b. Thematic questions of your Paideia cluster
2. You have been engaged in interdisciplinary learning on campus. How will you apply this approach while you study abroad?
3. Are there any particular reasons you chose this program, location, or semester that should be taken into account?

Return Requirement

If you are awarded this scholarship, at the conclusion of your study abroad program, you agree to submit a two page statement about your experience abroad, including how it has affected you personally, professionally, and academically, how this scholarship supported your endeavors, and how the program has altered your perspective on your cluster topic. Once submitted, this statement becomes property of the Office of Intercultural Learning and excerpts may be used in any/all electronic and printed publications.
